

Study Abroad Package Program

Santa Monica College is pleased to offer one and two semester package programs to students who wish short-term study abroad experiences, or for students who want guaranteed classes in their first semester. Pre-selected courses in each package are guaranteed to admitted students, and are designed to help students make the most of their study opportunity.

Students earn transferrable credits, so those who wish to extend their studies beyond the Study Abroad Package semester will be well placed to continue into a degree based or transfer based program.

Those who choose the Business-Marketing or Sports and Nutrition track have the option to add on a second semester in order to earn a program certificate.
